Homecoming Gets 'Cleaned Up'

1988 Homecoming was full of fun throughout the week. The student body picked the top five girls: Darlene Benson, Angie Kuchar, Paula Moore, Theresa Ortega, and Stacey Wagner for the Homecoming Court.

On Friday night, Angie Kuchar was crowned queen. The class floats were built to meet the theme of "Cleaning Products." The winning float was built by the Sophomore class and overall spirit went to the Junior class.

Shared Senior Memories . . .

The class of 1989 has achieved many goals in the past four years, with scholars like Pang Kou Hang and Mike Uhl, athletes like Connie Gulczinski and Brian Reinbold.

Also, we put a lot of hard work and effort into the floats. With this, we won first place for three of the Homecoming floats and all four of the Comehoming floats.

In the new few pages we leave you with the memories and achievements of the 1989 Senior class . . .

Our Officers — Standing: S. Hecht and K. Schwartz. Sitting: M. Uhl and C. Kriel.

Our Advisors, who led us through these years, Mrs. Krauss and Mrs. Fogus.

Foreign guests make Reese home

This year the senior class had two extra members for part of the year: Axel Flasbarth and Kristen Halterman.

Axel is from Tarmstedt, located between Hamburg and Bremen in Northern Germany. Axel likes playing tennis, golf, and listening to music, classical, as well as rock n' roll. Axel wanted to be an exchange student to see America and learn better English.

Kristen is from Bremen. She enjoys bike riding, walking her dog, traveling, shopping, and talking with friends. She wanted to become an exchange student to see and learn more about America.

'Movies' Theme For Comehoming

Comehoming '89 was February 17 with the theme of Movies. Each class had prepared floats and hall decorations.

The Seniors won float, hall, and overall spirit. The Freshman won spirit.

During halftime of the J.V. game, Kevin Ackerman, escorted by Angie Kuchar, was crowned Comehoming King for 1989.

After the game, the dance was held in the cafeteria with music by "M & M".

Seniors Travel To Cedar Point

This year's senior class ventured to Sandusky, Ohio to try out the new "Magnum" at Cedar Point. Some of their stomachs were either in their throats or down in their knees from all the food they ate.

As the bus traveled, two advisors and their husbands, and everybody else had a good time either talking or sleeping. But once the day was over, they were all pretty tired from the walking and all of the rides that day.

One thing for sure, none of them will ever forget that last day of having fun with their friends.

"Changes" Theme For Jr/Sr Prom

"Changes" was the theme for the 1989 prom, sponsored by the Junior class. It was a night to remember. The Prom was held at the Delta College Commons.

Festivities started with dinner at 6:30 with Mock Awards and Dancing till 12:30 following. Door prizes were given to students throughout the evening. Money for these prizes was donated by parents and local merchants.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by J.D. John Luna — "High Fidelity."

The day had finally come!

The day had finally come for the class of 1989. There were new lifestyles about to begin. On June 4 it was final. They were carrying around the most precious thing they had ever worked hard for. It was a sad occasion for most, and for others relief that they made it this far.

Sad and happy memories have passed through the years. Some they'll never forget, others they'll want to. But the most precious ones were in the walls of Reese High School. New futures were about to begin.

FACULTY

Elected leaders make decisions

The responsibility for efficiently running the school system falls to the Reese Board of Education. These individuals are elected to these positions of leadership by the local voters. The board holds open meetings on the second Monday of each month at the Elementary School. Their hard work and long hours are greatly appreciated.

Mr. Jerry Solgat, President

Mr. Lyle Ackerman, Vice-President

Mr. Wesley Ball, Treasurer

Mr. James Gruber, Secretary

Mr. William Palm, Mrs. Evelyn Beyerlein, and Mr. James Karp, Trustees

Building leaders keep the lid on

Mr. Webster, principal, prepares for another school day.

Our principal, Mr. Webster, did another fine job this year, making sure the school ran smoothly for students and faculty alike.

Each year the secretaries do an exceptional job. Their duties range from doing attendance to counseling duties and other important things.

If we didn't have our counselors helping us make class decisions, all would be lost. They each have helped all of us in their own special ways.

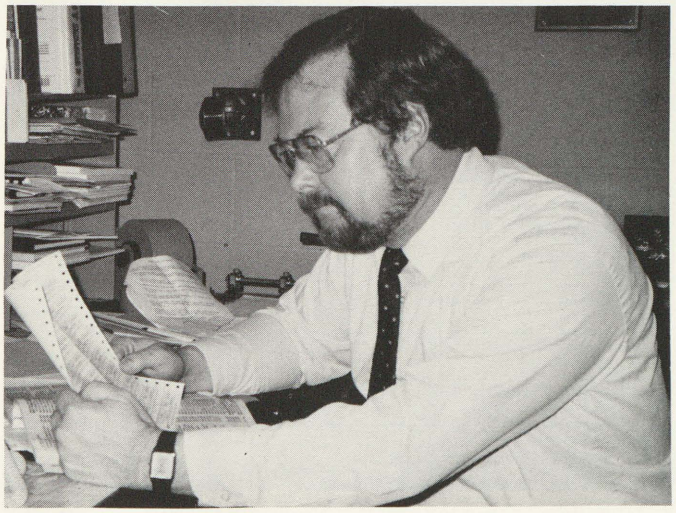
Special thanks to all of you!

Mrs. Belknap — Principal's Secretary

Mrs. Bender — Attendance Secretary

Mrs. Hill — Counseling Secretary

Miss Jones, counselor, takes a break from her busy schedule.

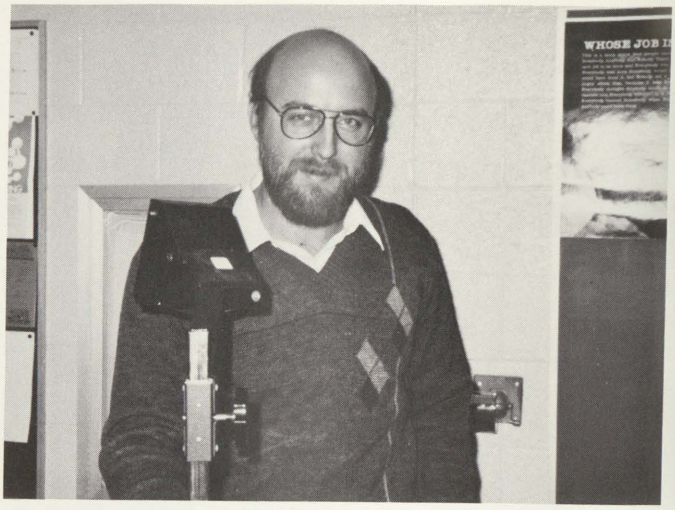


Mr. Jordon, counselor, checks junior ACT scores.

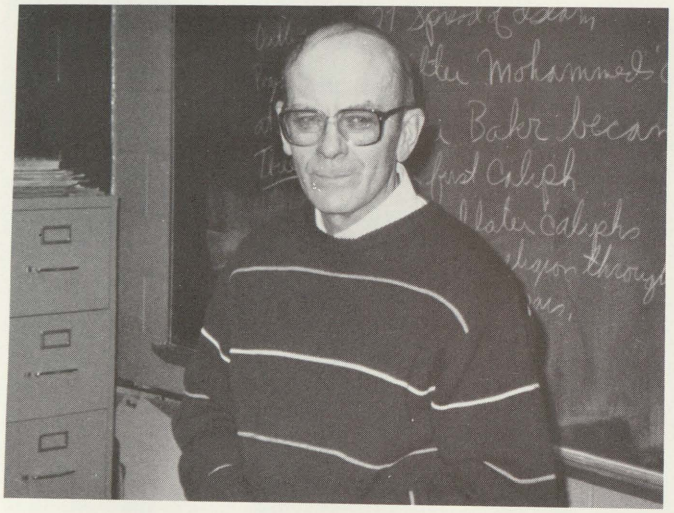
'88-'89 faculty offers it all

Reese High School was fortunate this year to have so many dedicated, supportive and hardworking teachers. Our teachers gave their all to offer us the best education Reese High School can give.

The teachers are responsible for preparing the students of Reese for a great and bright future. We thank them for everything they've done for us.

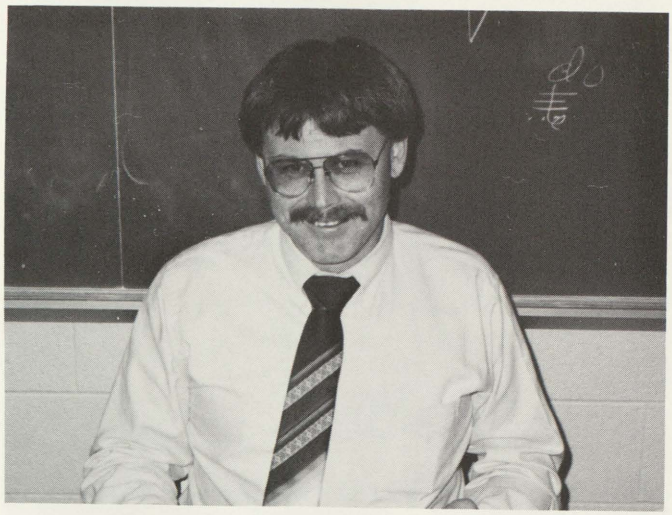


Mr. Behmlander lectures to his class on algebra.



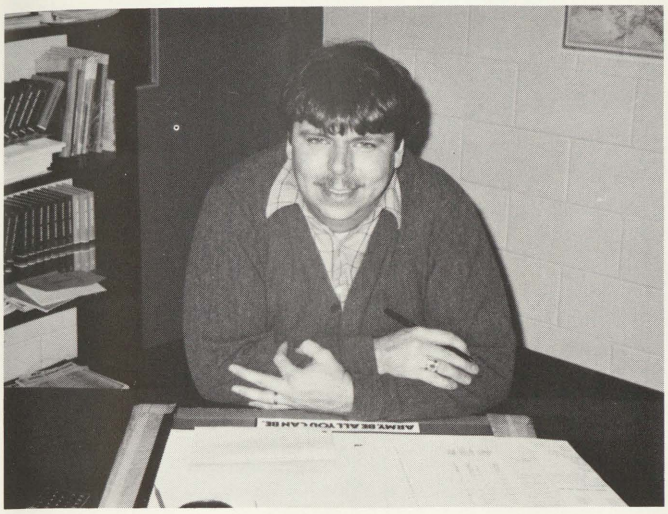
Mr. Bird keeps a watchful eye over his world history class.

Mr. Brown assists shop students in sixth hour.



Mr. Elliott corrects papers from his Typing I class.

Mrs. Fogus takes a break to read the newspaper.



Mr. Hannah waits to instruct his special education students.

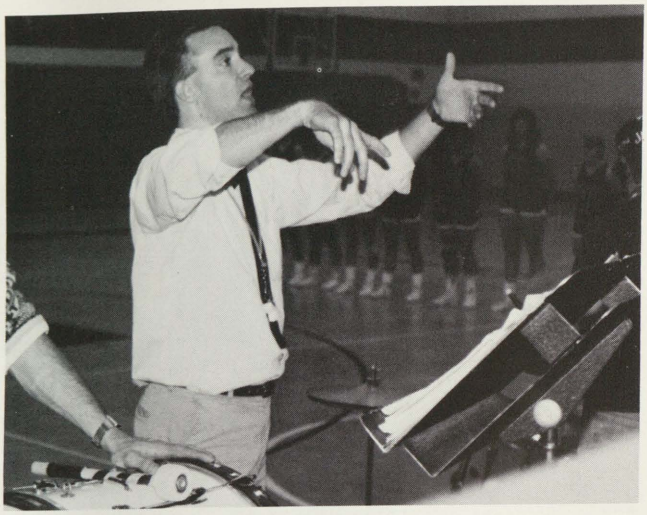
Mrs. Hofmeister plays the piano for her show choir class.

Miss Jones and buddy Amy Kuschinsky waste time in the office.

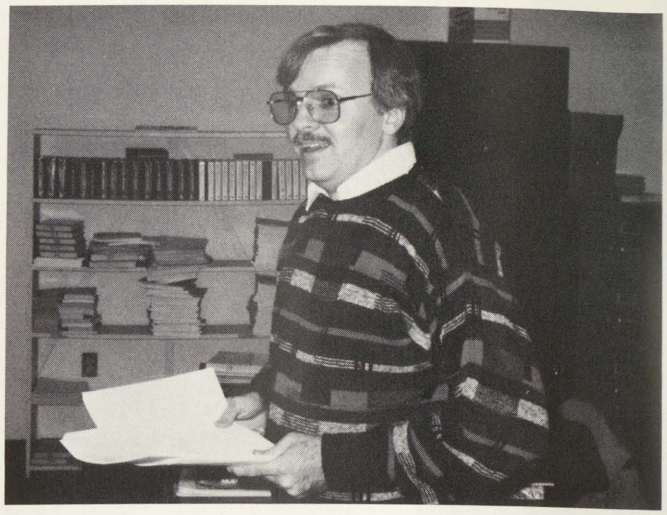
Mr. Jordan takes time to teach general math for the hour.

Mrs. Krauss enjoys a basketball game with her family.

Miss Landskroener explains a problem to her class.

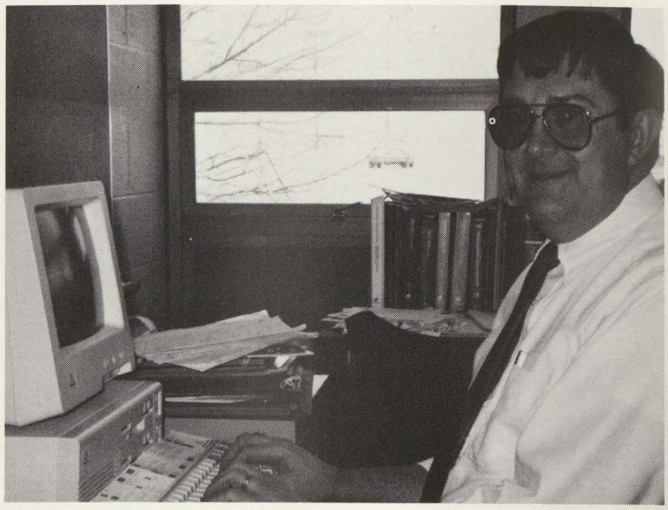


Mr. Lewis directs the pep band at a home basketball game.



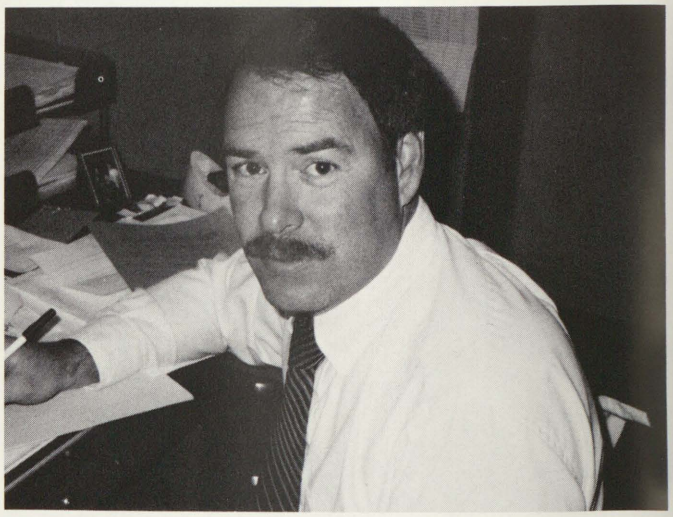
Mr. Marks gives his class its daily assignment.

Mrs. Marr smiles proudly during choir practice.



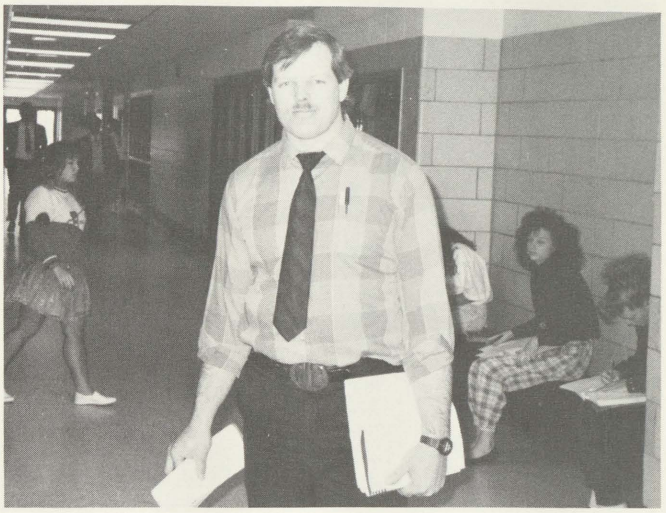
Mr. Matuzak gets a vocabulary quiz ready for the juniors on Friday.

Miss McLellan gives her biology class a smile after giving it its assignment.



Mr. Sage hard at work.

Mrs. Smith smiles after completing a long day.



Mr. Sprik in a casual moment in the hallway.

Mr. Van Paris reviews films of a football game in his free time.

Mrs. Vosler prepares for her U.S. history class.

Mrs. Weier gives her business law class a lecture.

Mr. Weier displays a "Big Kahuna" smile to his class.

Mrs. Wiseman takes time for a smile before starting he next class.

Miss Yaroch helps Sarah Windy with an art project.

Special workers meet our needs

The Reese High School cooks did another fine job this year by giving us tasty and nutritious lunches. From the ala carte line to the hot lunch line, everything was hot and fresh when served.

The custodians of our school also did a great job. They kept everything in the school neat and clean.

Special thanks to all of you for your hard work and long hours.

Mrs. Nelson, head cook, prepares the hot lunch line.

Mrs. Felske, food supervisor, takes money at the ala carte line.

Mrs. Gulczinski takes Jon Petee's money in the regular hot lunch line.

Musical Fare Suits All Tastes

The Marching Band Color Guard this year consists of: M. Brechtelsbauer, T. Mueller, H. Schattilly, M. Kerns, A. Cousineau, and S. Yockey.

This year's music program included the Concert Band, the Pep Band, the Marching Band. Six events participated in the District Solo and Ensemble Festival. They received a collection of first and second division ratings. Two events participated at the State level Solo and Ensemble Festival. The concert Band also had a performance at the school for the public.

The Pep Band contributed to the schools enthusiasm by playing at all the boys basketball games and some girls basketball and volleyball games.

The Marching Band did an excellent job this year. They performed in exhibition at the MCBDA Competition. They also participated in District Marching Band Festival and received a respectable second-division rating.

The Jazz Band performed for a Mardi Gras night at the Independence Village in Frankenmuth. They also performed at the Spring Concert at the school. Overall, the bands did an excellent job in satisfying everyone's musical tastes!

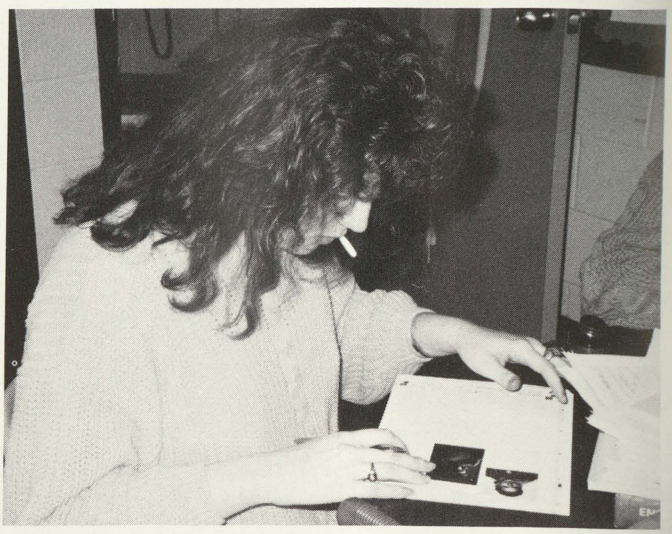
Staff Captures 1988-89 Year

This year the Yearbook Staff worked hard gathering information, and organizing the 1988-1989 school yearbook. Students were divided into groups, and each was responsible for a certain section of the yearbook. All members of the staff worked hard to make this yearbook an enjoyable one, and we hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed putting it together.



Michelle Bierlein, Editor, works efficiently on the yearbook pages.

Becky Greketis and Heather Greenleaf work to get the Undergraduates section done.

B.J. Lofback and Kris Humpert work on the faculty section.

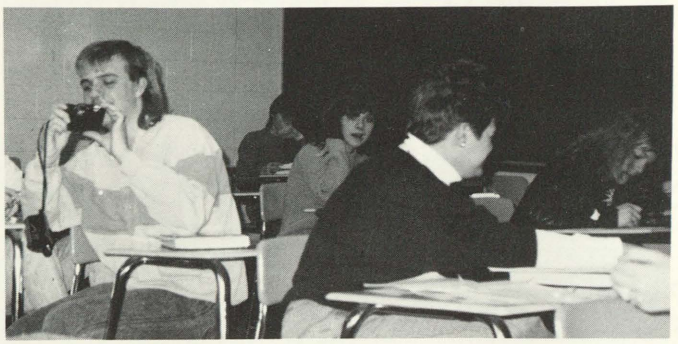
This year's yearbook staff included: Front Row: H. Greenleaf, L. Ryers, L. Avery, P. Anker, S. Greenia, and K. Humpert. Second Row: B. Reinbold, J. Szilagyi, J. Spiekerman, G. Hitts, B. Greketis, W. Lofback, and Mr. Matuzak.

Class Publishes Monthly Paper

The students in Journalism class worked hard to inform and entertain the Reese students with their monthly newspaper, "The Rocket Review."

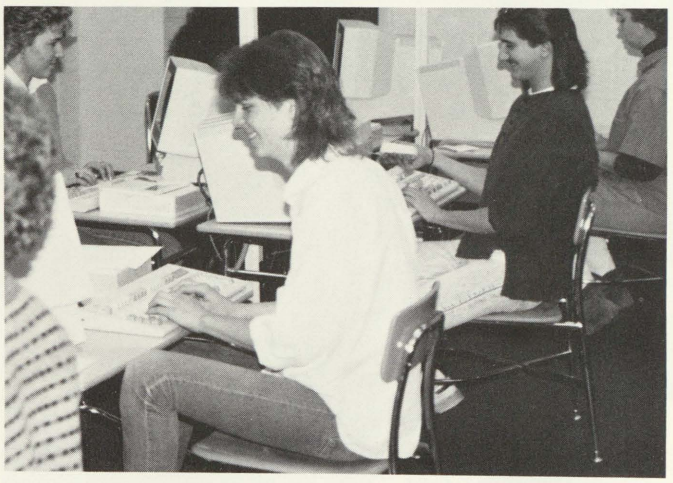
The Editor this year was B.J. Lofback. Editorial assistants were Lisa Avery, Jason Boensch, and Tonya Teddy.

Under the advisorship of Mr. Matuzak, reporters and editors once again succeeded in creating a fine school paper.



The Jouralism Class works on composing stories for the school newspaper.

Freshman Bobby Doud enjoys reading the school newspaper.



The Journalism class types its stories on the new computers.

This year's journalism staff included: Front Row: P. Anker, S. Smith, S. Windy, and L. Avery. Second Row: W. Lofback, M. Trombley, B. Todd, Mr. Matuzak, S. Leppert, B. Gnatkowski, and J. Boensch.

Show Choir Adds Music To Day

Mrs. Hofmeister and the Show Choir were very active this year. To show off their hard work they presented Christmas and Spring Concerts.

They attended the Solo-Ensemble at U of M and received a "one" on their group performance. As a result of this, they wre invited to participate in the State Competition.

The choir performs at its annual Christmas Concert.

The choir works on perfecting its songs.

Mrs. Hofmeister coaches Kim Pelkey through her song for festival.

This year's choir members included; Front Row: A. Campbell, A. Ronk, R. Krzeszewski, B. Troyer, J. Purman, and L. Buchinger. Second Row: S. Henne, R. Hirshman, S. Jimenez, G. Nolan, L. Ahrens, L. Avery, K. Pelkey, and B. Doerr. Third Row: L. Franklin, B. Greketis, S. Bailey, G. Holt, M. Hill, S. Greenia, and D. Valenzuela.

Jenni Purman, Becky Greketis, and Sherry Bailey take a break from their singing.

The Reese Rocket Express slows down to "That's What Love Is All About."

Lisa Buchinger pauses from playing the piano at the Christmas Concert.

The guys contribute to the choir by hitting the right notes.

Kim Pelkey sings a solo at the Christmas Concert.

The choir performs the popular "Banana Boat Song."

Dancers Present Annual Concert

This year the Modern Dance students worked as hard as ever. They dedicated their time after school to perfect their moves. The students practiced and learned their moves throughout the year. In the Spring they put on their concert for the public.

There were five seniors: Stacey Wagner, Lisa Ryers, Kim Van Ochten, Shannon Williams, Dana Stricker, and Michelle Bierlein. This year's concert was entitled, "Dance, Dance, Dance!" Good job, girls!

The girls practice a number for their Spring concert.

This year's Modern Dance members included: Front Row: J. Purman, J. Murlick, M. Reyna, A. Brechtelsbauer, K. Trombley, H. McKinstry, and N. Moore. Second Row: C. Bouvy, C. Findlay, M. Wagner, K. Van Ochten, A. Cousineau, and H. Schattilly. Third Row: K. O'Connor, T. Gulczinski, K. Findlay, A. Sage, K. Kurtansky, S. Krabbe, and L. Ryers.

Stacey Wagner, Jenny Purman, and Sherry Bailey get ready for the concert.

The Modern Dance group brings out the country in everyone.

Sue Wagner and Kelly Stockmeyer advised the group this year.

The dancers assume first position for the ending number.

Catherine Bouvy and Nancy Moore practice their moves for the concert.

Kris Trombley poses with the children who joined her in the dance number.

Student aides receive credit

This year the student aides were very busy helping teachers, the office staff, and the librarian in any way they could.

Some of the jobs student aides did included correcting papers, running errands, and typing worksheet and test's. Aides received one-half credit for their service.

Their extra help was greatly appreciated. They gave the teachers more time to devote to their teaching duties.

Patti Anker, Michelle Bierlein, Lisa Ryers, and Lisa Avery use group effort to finish the job effectively.

Student Aides for this year are: Front Row: A. Avery, C. Sylvester, K. Schwartz, J. Bremer, L. Avery, J. Elbers, S. Leppert, F. Hang, P. Anker, B. Todd, K. Bielskis, D. Kowalski, D. Cichowski, M. Trombley, and K. Fackler. Second Row: J. Fleischmann, S. Hecht, J. Schafsnitz, S. Smith, L. Ryers, J. Pierce, S. Prueter, S. Windy, M. Bierlein, S. Greenia, T. Tolfree, A. Boensch, and W. Loftback. Third Row: H. Weiss, J. Zwerk, K. Van Ochten, K. Bailey, D. Benson, D. Miller, A. Kuchar, K. Fackler, T. Ortega, J. Marden, B. Jones, E. Claerhout, R. Hirschman, V. Pierce, X. Hang, and J. Sam Leppert stamps a new shipment of books for the library.

Dana Stricker grades papers for Mr. Elliott's typing class.

Students Explore Career Options

The Skill Center offered a range of classes for everyone's individual career needs. These classes gave students experience in the careers they hope to enter someday.

The students enjoy going to the Skill Center. Not only do they expand their skills, but they also meet many other students from neighboring schools.

Students can take Skill Center their junior or senior year.

Students attending the afternoon Skill Center this year are: Front Row: S. Edwards, M. Phillips, S. Hornstra, E. Grimes, J. Gaunt, B. Lockwood, and L. Isetts. Second Row: D. Miller, S. Prueter, J. ABC sponsors award dessert

The Academic Boosters Club's purpose is to raise money for academic letters, patches, medals, and plaques for the student body. The Club started in February of 1987.

They have worked hard to raise money and give recognition to those students who have achieved academically. This year canisters were put in the local businesses to help support the Reese Academic Boosters.

Pep Club Boosts Student Spirit

This year's Pep Club got the school spirit going! During Homecoming and Comehoming they designed signs for the hallways and gym. They also went to basketball games to get the crowd's excitement going!

The Pep Club is a voluntary organization that meets before and after school.

Ms. Yaroch worked hard this year to keep up the school spirit.

Mrs. Mueller gets the crowd ready for the game.

Students work on signs for the halls during Comehoming.

No Trophies Won In Annual Meet

This year the Academic games teams worked very hard. Unfortunately, their hard work didn't pay off. They went to SVSU on Saturday, April 22, to compete against the other Tuscola County Schools. For the first time in six years, no Reese team captured a trophy.

The Science team tried hard but lost in the preliminary round. The Social Studies and English teams competed well, but were eliminated in the first round. The Math team made an excellent effort and lost in the Semi-final round. All four teams showed good sportsmanship and are looking forward to next year.

This year's science team included: Front Row: Mrs. Wiseman, L. Reinert, A. Houghtaling, and H. Toloff. Second Row: D. Miller, M. Manley, P. Kumar, and C. Twork.

This year's English team included: J. Williamson, S. Billmeier, J. Elbers, and K. Van Alstine. Second Row: Mr. Matuzak, K. Schwartz, and J. Elbers.

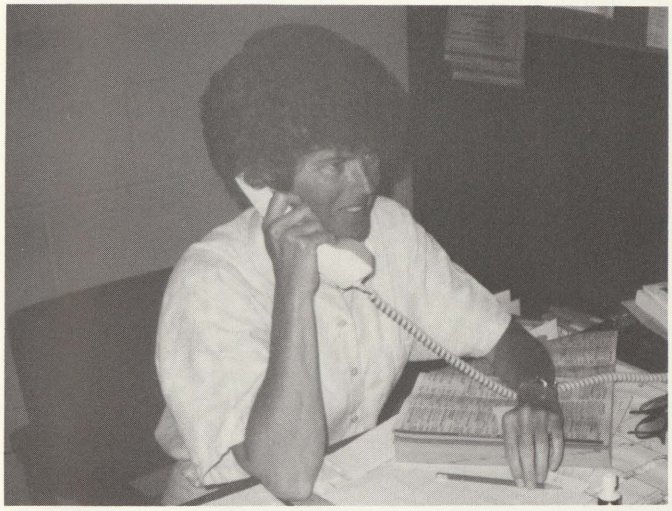
This year's social studies team included: Front Row: L. Buchinger, C. Kreil, and P. Hang. Second Row: Mrs. Smith, P. Hang, S. Henne, and J. Kern.

This year's math team included: Front Row: G. Gomoluch, J. Krauss, and B. Sahr. Second Row: K. Ackerman, M. Schiefer, and Mr. Weier.

Tutoring Shows Students 'Care'

This year Reese High School sponsored a new program. Project Care was organized to aid elementary and middle school students in doing their homework. Students from the high school volunteered their time to go over throughout the week to give any assistance needed.

Vicki Merchant presents the project care students with awards for all their help.



Ms. Jones, guidance counselor, advised the project care students this year.

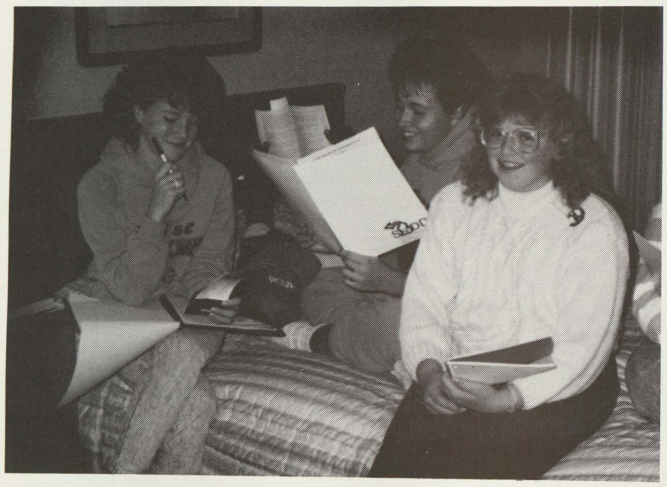
Students Bring SADD To RHS

This year the high school organized a new program. SADD, Students Against Drunk Driving, showed great effort in getting students to stop and think before getting behind the wheel after drinking.

In the Spring, during the lunch hours, SADD members showed a movie on drinking and driving and distributed contracts for students to sign guaranteeing a safe and enjoyable prom.

Ms. Yaroch receives a red rose in appreciation from the SADD members.



The SADD members read over some informative material about SADD in the local area.

Tonya Teddy finishes up a SADD display in the showcase.

Pam Sabraw, Donna Lagalo, and Dawn Butler hand out contracts for Project Graduation.

This year's SADD members included: Front Row: L. Avery, E. Crimes, and L. Buchinger. Second Row: Ms. Yaroch, C. Petro, A. Ronk, and F. Wurdock.

Day Care Comes To Reese High

Jake, Kayla, Emily, Brandon, and Greg enjoy the toys at the center.

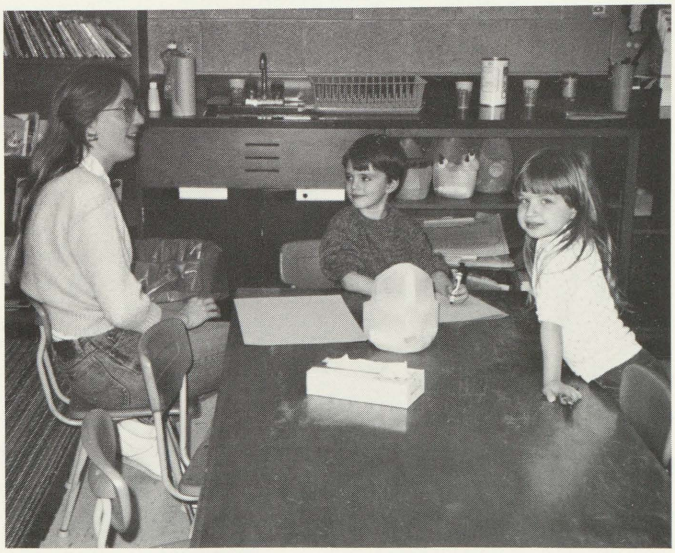
This year the Reese Public Schools offered a new Day Care program for working parents. This Day Care enabled parents to drop their children off as early as seven a.m. and pick them up as late as six p.m. Not only does the program give parents a convenient place to take their kids but also ensure their children's safety and that they are in a well-rounded educational environment.

The children are supervised by Nancy Bliss, Stacey Woock, and JoAnn Johnson. They are served meals and snacks throughout the day.

Jaime Kern quietly puts a puzzle together.

Emily Hannah climbs on the jungle gym.

Matt Hillborg takes a nap from a hard day at play.



Nancy Bliss works with the kids on artwork.

Varsity suffers rebuilding year

This year's Varsity Football team concluded with a 0-9 record. The team had many young players, with seven seniors, nine juniors, and five sophomores on the squad.

Team members spent many long hours on the practice field.

With this many underclassmen returning, we are looking for a league championship next year.

The 1988 Girls' Varsity Basketball season was one of ups and downs. They started by losing two games in an opening-season tournament and losing their last three games of the season. But in between, the Lady Rockets soared to a 9-6 won lost record including a 7-1 mark against non-league opponents.

This year's team featured two seniors, six juniors, and one sophomore. Coach Marks believes, considering the tough schedule the Lady Rockets faced, that this may have been one of the best teams taking the court for the Rockets in nearly thirteen years.

Lisa Ryers is hoping for a two point shot.

JV Girls' Team Takes Second

The Girls' J.V. Basketball team had a successful 1988 season. The girls overall were 12-8, with a 6-4 league record which was good enough for a second place finish in the league. The entire team practiced and played tough.

Their biggest asset was they never gave up even though they may have been down by many points. With many girls hopefully returning, Mr. Grysko is looking for another successful season.

Amy Sage attempts a two-point shot.

Stacey Yockey keeps the ball under control with tough defense upon her.

Girls Have Terrific Season

The Reese Girls' Track Team had a very successful season this year. They placed first in all their dual and triangular meets.

With only one senior leaving, Mr. Jordon feels that he will have another rewarding season next year.

Coach Jordon replied, "This is my first undefeated season I have ever had at Reese." Good luck, girls!

V-Baseball Hits A 9-18 Season

This year's varsity baseball team ended with a 9 and 18 record. The team had three seniors, six juniors, and two sophomores, and this team had many first-year varsity players. With a few more players and more practice, next year's team should be in good shape.

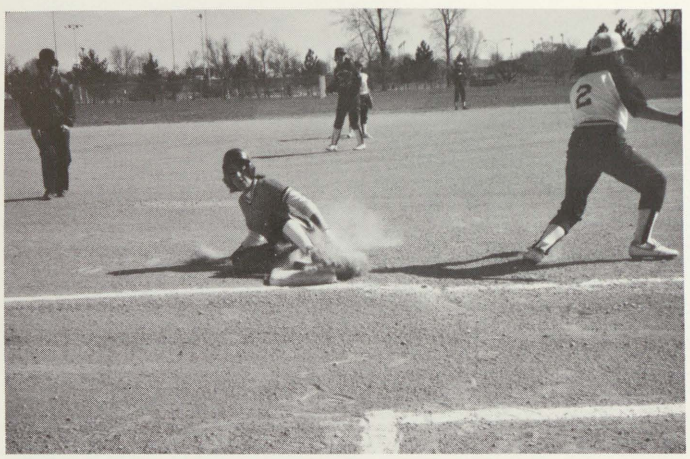
The Reese Girls Softball Team started off well this year! Traveling to U.S.A., they defeated them both games for the first time in three years. The record for Reese ended up being 9 wins and 11 losses.

With the loss of five seniors, Mr. Behmlander hopes that the upcoming sophomores can replace their playing abilities.



Lisa Avery slides her way into third.

Tonya Teddy bring in a run for the Lady Rockets.

The J.V. Softball Team ended its season with 4 wins and 10 losses. Six returning players and seven first-year players made up the team. The girls hit the ball well this year, but sometimes suffered defensively.

It was a learning experience for all. Coach Yaroch said she enjoyed working with the girls and is looking forward to a better season next year!

First Row: D. Prime, J. Shepherd, B. Countagan, K. Van Alstine, K. Solgat, and D. Agens.
Back Row: H. Tolloff, G. Kolhagen, A. Cousineau, S. Krabbe, S. Sommers, B. Findlay, and Coach Yaroch.

Becky Findlay prepares for a slide into third.

Heidi Tolloff rounds third to check for a possible run.
